CHELSEA ZURFLÜH, Sopran

Chelsea Marilyn Zurflüh, soprano from Biel, graduated from the Lucerne School of Music with Prof. Barbara Locher. As part of her final project, she has already appeared on stage as Ännchen in Carl Maria von Weber's opera DER FREISCHÜTZ.

She has been a member of the Zurich International Opera Studio since the 2021/22 season and has already appeared on the stage of the Opera House as Alice in Rossini's LE COMTE ORY, Zaida in IL TURCO IN ITALIA and Barbarina in LE NOZZE DI FIGARO. She will also return to Zurich Opera House in 2022/2023 as Soprano 1 in JAKOB LENZ and Atalanta in SERSE, as well as appearing in other engagements as a soloist in Bach's MATTHEW PASSION and Rossini's PETITE MESSE SOLENNELLE, for example.

In autumn 2019, Chelsea Zurflüh began her Master's studies at the Bern University of the Arts in the Swiss Opera Studio Biel. During her Master's studies, she made her debut at Theater Biel-Solothurn in October 2020 as Frau Binz in Paul Burkhard's opera CASANOVA IN DER SCHWEIZ. She completed her internship at the Theater Bern in 2020/21 and performed as Adele in the operetta DIE FLEDERMAUS. In June 2021, Chelsea completed her Master's degree with distinction. In December 2019, there was an honourable appearance: she sang the national anthem on the occasion of the swearing-in of the members of the Council of States in the Federal Parliament.

Chelsea is a laureate of numerous Swiss singing competitions, such as the Migros Kulturprozent and the Kiefer Hablitzel / Göhner Foundation. In August 2022 Chelsea won second place and the audience prize at the prestigious Cesti Competition in Innsbruck and in February 2023 she won second place at the International Mozart Competition in Salzburg.
