The charismatic German tenor made his debut in Cologne in 2009 as Stolzing/DIE MEISTERSINGER VON NÜRNBERG, followed by productions of the same work at the Komische Oper Berlin and at the Glyndebourne Festival in 2011. The Nederlandse Opera Amsterdam invited him to sing Erik/DER FLIEGENDE HOLLÄNDER in 2010. Shortly afterwards he sang Froh/DAS RHEINGOLD at La Scala Milan under Daniel Barenboim, followed by the same production at the Staatsoper Berlin. Roles such as Erik, Parsifal, Lohengrin, Max, Peter Grimes, Tambourmajor and Bacchus have taken Marco Jentzsch to the State Operas of Hanover and Hamburg, the Cologne Opera, the Israeli Opera in Tel Aviv (under the direction of Zubin Mehta), Zurich and Basel, Wiesbaden, the Leipzig Opera and the Semperoper Dresden. In 2019/20 he made his debut as Tannhäuser at the Klagenfurt Theatre. The 21/22 and 22/23 seasons include TRISTAN UND ISOLDE in Wiesbaden and at the Mākslas Festivāl Cēsis in Latvia. 23/24 he presented himself as PARSIFAL at the Staatstheater Hannover, followed by Florestan/FIDELIO at the Staatsoper Berlin, Brahms' RINALDO in Warsaw, Siegmund/WALKÜRE in Wiesbaden and at the Erl Festival as well as in a highly acclaimed new production of TANNHÄUSER in Frankfurt.
